Mr. Hidenori Furuta

Hidenori Furuta is the Chief Operating Officer (COO) and Representative Director of the Board of Fujitsu Limited, and additionally holds the position of Head of International Regions. Furuta joined the company in 1982 as a systems engineer and was responsible for delivering large-scale SI projects in the manufacturing industry. He has held various senior leadership positions across Fujitsu's global operations from leading the Global Delivery organization in 2014 which consisted of over 8,000 delivery and offshore resources, to heading the Digital Services Business in 2018 where he focused on supporting customers' digital transformation journey. In 2019, he was appointed as the Head of the Technology Solutions Business overseeing the entire solution services and products businesses, as well as serving as the Chief Technology Officer (CTO). In 2020, he was appointed as the Head of the newly formed Global Solutions Business and also the International Regions. He has lived in Tokyo, Japan and London, UK, and is an advocate for diversity and driving change.

Fujitsu is a leading Japanese information technology (IT) company serving 180 countries across 6 regions including Japan. Fujitsu's IT services business ranks top by market share in Japan and in the top tier worldwide, a record that reflects our outstanding technologies and long track record in building large-scale, cutting-edge systems. Fujitsu was one of the original signatories to The Open Group, LLC Agreement and held Platinum membership from 1996 to 2006. Then due to Fujitsu's internal structural change, Fujitsu became a Gold Member in 2014, then became a Platinum Member again in 2016 and also became the member of the Governing Board at the same time.
