

Decarbonization is the strong focus for all industries, but energy sector has a huge pressure as we are still producing hydrocarbon from underground. In this talk, INPEX – Towards a Net Zero Carbon society by 2050” will be briefly explained as one of example.

Also there are joint efforts from whole Energy sector to accelerate the step changes towards decarbonization. The status of OSDU (Open subsurface Data universe) will be covered as an example.