Mr. DOUGLAS B. EVANS
Managing Director,
Pragmata Law Corp.

San Francisco, California

Douglas B. Evans is a San Francisco-based attorney and business executive whose work focuses on assisting entrepreneurs. He has worked for major international corporations (IBM, Mitsui & Co.), major international law firms (Nishimura & Asahi in Tokyo, Morrison & Foerster in San Francisco), and successful start-up companies.

Following Morrison & Foerster, Mr. Evans served as President of Dotcast, Inc., in which capacity he successfully guided the launch of the company's wireless distribution technology in a nationwide network operated through a consortium of The Walt Disney Company, Cisco, and Intel. Mr. Evans also guided the successful sale of the company and distribution of the proceeds to shareholders.

Currently, Mr. Evans acts as an attorney, board member and advisor to numerous start-up companies in new industries, including blockchain and cryptocurrencies.

Mr. Evans received his J.D. from Northwestern University in Chicago, and holds an LL.M. in European Community Law from the University of Amsterdam, The Netherlands. He is a past Governing Committee member of the ABA Forum on Entertainment and Sports Law, and past Chairman of its section on Interactive Media and New Technologies. Mr. Evans is licensed to practice law in California and New York. He is the inventor with respect to four issued patents pertaining to digital watermarking (assigned to Digimarc Corp.).
