

Mr. Shigeki Suzuki

Vice Chairman

CRM Association Japan

Mr. SUZUKI Shigeki joined the Ministry of Post and Communications of Japan in 1981. Since the liberalization of telecommunications market in 1985, Mr. Suzuki have been promoting competition of telecommunication market, reregulating frequency system and allocating more frequency to mobile communication, digitalizing terrestrial broadcasting and introducing 4K/8k broadcasting, developing wired and wireless broadband internet nationwide and web services, and making effort to realize the Information Society. In 1995 Mr. SUZUKI worked for the first Ministerial meeting on the Information Society as a staff of Japanese government.